Gym Coach Quits High School Post

A recent ruling by the Massachusetts Secondary School Principals' Association which places stiff penalties on out-of-season participation in any sport jeopardized not only the Andover High School state championship gymnastics team entry in an inter-state tournament, but the intramural sports program and the entire inter-school sports program of the high school. It may have cost the high school its popular head gymnastics coach who has developed six state championship teams in the past seven years.

Head gymnastics coach Joseph A. Dorsey has handed his resignation to Athletic Director Donald Dunn, calling the ruling "the last straw" on top of other grievances. The resignation has not gone further, and school officials hope that both the coaches' and the gymnastic team's situations can be resolved without loss of the coach or school eligibility.

Although informal assurances have been received from Charles Downs, executive secretary of the MSSPA that the gymnastics team "naturally should be permitted to stay in condition and practice in order to be ready for this meet," and the intramural program has been reinstated, Principal Philip Wormwood has stated that he is not satisfied without a statement in writing that continued practice does not constitute a violation.

The hoped-for conclusion is a ruling by the Athletic Committee of the MSSPA at their April 10 meeting, permitting gymnastics to become a three-season sport, as track and other highly individualized sport, already are. School officials have had the support of letters to the MSSPA from an Andover parent, Mrs. Arthur Seikunas, 21 Gould St., outlining the situation. Downs' informal permission for gymnastic practice came in response to Mrs. Seikunas'.

Five Teachers, Coach Appointed By Board

The School Committee approved six appointments at their Tuesday night meeting, that of Richard Collins as head track coach, and five new appointments to the system.

Franklin Hayward was approved as science teacher at the East Jr. High. A graduate of the University of Maine with an M.S. from the University of Wyoming, Mr. Hayward has done graduate work at the Universities of New Hampshire and Maine. He is presently teaching in Salem, N. H.

Stephen Richardson of Lynnfield, was approved as a teacher in business education at the East Jr. High School. Mr. Richardson holds a B.S. in education from Salem State College, and a masters degree in Business education from Boston University. He has been a student teacher in Wakefield.

Richard J. Bourdelais of Holyoke, who has a B.S. degree from the University of Massachusetts, and presently teaches at Cathedral High in Springfield, will teach physical education at the junior high school level.

Two elementary school teachers who have been appointed are Miss Geraldine Hajjar, 17 Birch Ave., Methuen and Miss Janet Russell, 191 High Plain Rd. Both have completed the B. S. in Education at Lowell State College.

Trackmen Can Use AHS Facility

Superintendent of Schools Edward I. Erickson has informed the School Committee that the track at the high school will be available for use for the spring season, although the baseball diamond will not be in use; the latter will be under reconstruction by the Park Department.

Erickson said that High School Building Committee Chairman Robert McIntyre and Town Manager Richard J. Bowen had advised him that the School Department could use both the track itself and adjacent areas for spring track activities.

West School Plans Approved By Board

Preliminary plans for the West School Addition were agreed upon Tuesday night by the School Committee and the Building Committee.

School Committee approval of the 24 classroom addition, necessary before the plans can qualify for approval by the state's School Building Assistance Commission, was voted 4-1 on the architects latest drawings, with three specific exceptions, in Tuesday night's climax to weeks of hard work and some hard disagreement between the two bodies.

Building Committee Chairman James St. Germain called the School Committee exceptions reasonable ones, which he was sure architect Frank Crimp could cover, and School Committee Chairman Dr. Richard Katz complimented the Building Committee for its marathon job of eliciting plans from the architect which could meet both the educational standards of the School Committee and the Building Committee's concern for economy. SC member William A. Doherty, lone voter against approving the plans, said his objections were not based on the plans themselves but on his objections to building at the West School site.

Both groups expect a new set of preliminary plans meeting the

Conservation Committee Ready To Purchase Land

The Andover Conservation Committee is on the verge of purchasing 15 acres of land off Woburn Street from the Essex Sand and Gravel Company for $15,000.

The acreage is west of the present Pump's Pond recreation area and is to be obtained without self help from the state.

Fred Stott of the conservation group told the selectmen Monday night that when last viewed the property was in acceptable condition.

However, in view of the recent heavy rains, the selectmen thought it would be wise to view the area again to see if any washouts had occurred. Stott agreed to this and said that he wanted to have Building Inspector Arthur Peatman go along on the inspection.

Stott said that the operation of the gravel pit had been carried on so as to save as many trees as possible. Some grading will be done before the payment of the $15,000 purchase price, he said.

The selectmen advised Stott to make the inspection and if he finds everything all right, to go ahead and consummate the deal at once.

It was pointed out at the meeting that with the purchase of this area of land, the town will own all but one stretch of the area around Pump's Pond.

Selectmen, Manager Make Reappointments Of Many

The selectmen and town manager acted Monday night on a long list of appointive officials whose terms expire on April 1.

The great majority of the incumbents were re-appointed, but there were a few exceptions.

The position of gas inspector, held by Walter R. Vogt, and the milk and health inspectors' post held by John J. Broderick, were left vacant. Town manager Richard J. Bowen told the board that he was negotiating with a professional sanitarian whom he hopes to have take over these tasks as well as the work done by Robert McQuade who makes percolation tests for the town. The professional will work the equivalent of three days a week for the town while he continues as a college teacher.

Dr. Ernest F. Costello of High Street was named a trustee of Memorial Hall Library to succeed Judge Andrew Caffrey.

A position on the development and Industrial Commission was left vacant as there was no one available to fill the post.

The position of Associate Member of the Zoning Board of Appeals which contained the name of Virginia Hammond for a three year term was left vacant until the next meeting of the board. The board agreed on motion of William Stewart to leave the position open for nominations until that time.

State Scholarships Available

The Massachusetts Board of Higher Education has announced that applications for 1968-69 for the various types of state scholarships offered by the Board are now available at secondary schools, colleges, universities, and nursing schools in Massachusetts.

Through the Board of Higher Education, the Commonwealth of Massachusetts offers several types of scholarships to needy and academically qualified students who are domiciled in Massachusetts. These are:

1. General Scholarships for students who plan to attend or are attending regionally accredited institutions of higher education in the United States, excluding the University of Massachusetts which has separate state funds for scholarships, but including those institutions supported by the Commonwealth which have received reasonable assurance of regional accreditation.

For the 1967-68 academic year, 1,700 such scholarships totaling $500,000 were awarded by the Board of Higher Education.

These awards are renewable annually upon application to a total of four awards to one recipient.

For 1968-69, applicants for freshman awards must have taken the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) of the College Entrance Examination Board. Upperclass candidates must be in satisfactory academic standing.

2. Medical, Dental and Nursing Scholarships. Under this program medical and dental students in need of assistance and enrolled in an accredited medical or dental school may apply for awards. Nursing students may attend any state approved institution, which offers a diploma or an Associate, Baccalaureate, or advanced degree, except the University of Massachusetts, which has separate state funds for scholarship purposes.

For the 1967-68 academic year, 690 medical, dental, and nursing students were assisted by $250,000 in state funds.

These awards are renewable annually for up to a total of five awards, upon application.

3. Awards for children of deceased members of police or fire departments. In 1966 the Massachusetts Legislature authorized a new scholarship program under which the Board of Higher Education may grant tuition scholarships to children of deceased uniformed members of a paid fire department, permanent members of a police department, the police force of the Metropolitan District Commission, or the Capitol Police. Such death must have been the result of injuries received in the performance of duty. Applicants for these scholarships must be graduates of a Massachusetts high school and they must have been accepted as full-time students by an institution of higher education supported by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. These awards may be used only at such institutions.

4. Special Education Scholarships for those planning to teach mentally retarded children. Under this program, the Board of Higher Education may award $500 per year to undergraduate students who are planning to teach mentally retarded children. Such students may attend any regionally accredited college offering a special education curriculum except the State College at Fitchburg which has separate state funds for scholarships for such students. During the 1967-68 academic year, twenty-eight special education awards were granted. Massachusetts colleges which offer this curriculum are: Anna Maria College, Boston College, Boston University, and Lesley College.

Applications for these scholarship programs, the general awards and the three special programs, are now available in the guidance offices of secondary schools, the student financial aid offices in colleges, medical and dental schools, and in the offices of the directors of nursing in schools of nursing. Students enrolled in out-of-state institutions should contact the Scholarship Office, Board of Higher Education, 182 Tremont St., Boston, Mass. 02111, to obtain application forms. Schools or colleges in need of forms may obtain them from the same office.

The application deadline for general scholarships is May 1. For the medical, dental and nursing awards the deadline is May 15. Therefore, it is important that those who wish to apply for these awards for 1968-69 do so now.

Over Thirty Loop

The thirty-and-over basketball league will begin finals this Thursday with the Hornets and Butterflies facing each other to bring the season to a close.

Both teams defeated their semi-final opponents in two straight with styles of play as different as tomorrow and yesterday.

The Hornets, with a tight defense and stressing the proper scoring opportunity, handcuffed the Pick-Ups in both their games. This effort climaxed a team goal set at the season's beginning, the turning point for the Buzzers came in a play-off game with the Sweepers that determined the fourth spot for the finals. Bob Eastman's optimistic approach, however, inspired the team and his often-heard, "never a doubt," seemed to lead the way.

The second game last week, pitted the mile-high Butterflies, who remain undefeated, against the short-handed Strobe teams. Marciano's ace scoring forward, McPhearson, offered his usual fifteen point game average, but it failed to rally the team. The Butterflies with Billy Cox leading the way, kept the pressure on until the final whistle and finished with a 52-44 margin.

Health Board Notes New Law

The Andover board of health has called the attention of parents to regulations concerning children entering school.

A new health requirement was signed into law by Gov. Volpe on Sept. 5, 1967. This regulation states that "no child shall, except as here-in-after provided, be admitted to school except upon presentation of a physician's certificate that the child has been successfully vaccinated against smallpox and immunized against diphtheria, pertussis, tetanus, measles and poliomyelitis and such other communicable diseases as may be specified from time to time by the department of public health."

Parents should make sure that children entering school have been immunized against the six communicable diseases named above. There will be a small group of children exempted from the law because of medical and religious reasons. "In case of the former, a statement from the family physician is required indicating the reasons why one or more of the immunizations should not be given. In the case of a religious exemption a certificate must be completed by an official of the church or religious denomination."

This law applies to children of all ages attending school from kindergarten through eighth grade.

Children's Eye Testing Program

Preparations are being made for children's eye testing next month during a program sponsored by the Andona Society under the supervision of the Mass. Society for the Prevention of Blindness and in co-operation with the Andover Board of Health.

Under the direction of Mrs. William T. Bride Jr., assisted by Mrs. David Gump and Mrs. Francis Witt, more than 36 trained volunteers from The Andona Society will conduct this free eye screening program for children 4 and 5 years old in the Pike School, The Free Church Nursery School, The West Parish Nursery School and The Mother Goose Nursery School.

The program is also being offered with no charge to all other 4 and 5 year old children on Monday, April 1 from 1 to 5 p.m., and again on Tuesday, April 2 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the South Church, 41 Central St. Transportation may be arranged by calling Mrs. Earl Simon.

Amblyopia, one eye condition common in children, may be corrected ONLY if discovered before the age of 5 or 6. Since children do not know how well they should see, it is important that they participate in an eye screening program to insure good vision. To date, more than 165,000 pre-school youngsters have been screened in this program.

Athletes

Hundreds of alumni, parents, students, faculty and friends are expected to take part in a tribute to the Merrimack College winter varsity athletes at the Alumni Varsity Club Dinner, April 11 at 7:30 p.m. in Tagastan Hall on the College Campus.

Charles H. Wesson Jr. of Andover, president of the Merrimack College Alumni Association has announced the appointment of Joseph Day of Woburn as Chairman of the newly formed group.

Day, an assistant district attorney to Middlesex County, pointed out that "an organized alumni group to support our championship teams is long overdue and our first project is to bring our many friends together to honor these fine athletes."

This last season the Merrimack College hockey team successfully defended their title by once again emerging as ECAC Division II Champions. The basketball team ended its winning season by being picked eighth in the Northeast by a coaches poll.

George Wermers of Andover is on the committee.

Students Offered Tufts Program

High school students interested in devoting the summer to scientific research are invited to apply for the Junior Dental Scientist Award being offered by the Tufts University School of Dental Medicine.

Junior scientists receiving the traineeship award will spend eight weeks on a research project in the dental school's laboratories in Boston, according to the director of the summer program, Donald B. Giddon, D.M.D., Ph.D.

"The students selected will receive a $300 stipend and will work directly under members of the dental school faculty," explains Dr. Giddon, who is Professor and Chairman of the dental school's Department of Social Dentistry.

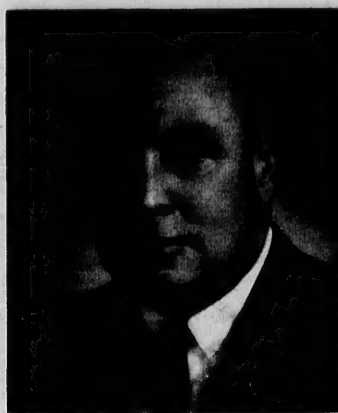

He emphasizes that high school juniors and seniors who apply need not have a special interest in dentistry, but that they must be boys and girls who are "genuinely and keenly interested" in scientific research. Application forms may be obtained either from high school counselors or directly from Dr. Giddon at Tufts University School of Dental Medicine, 136 Harrison Ave., Boston, Mass. 02111. Deadline for applications is May 1.

Andover Student Harvard Graduate

About 500 students received mid-year degrees from Harvard University on March 11, 1968. Among them was Susan Barbara Hill, Forbes Ln., master of arts.

Since there are no ceremonies in March, the mid-year degree recipients are invited to the June Commencement exercises where they may march in the procession and receive their diplomas from the officials of the schools or houses with which they were most closely associated.

West Parish 'A' clinched the Junior Division title in the Andover Church Basketball League by scoring a 16-10 victory over St. Augustine 'B' in recent action at the East Junior high gym. St. Augustine 'A' won the Intermediate title earlier.

The win lifted unbeaten West Parish 'A' to an 8-0 record and left it two games ahead of both Baptist and St. Augustine 'B' with just one game left to play.

The West Parish win was not an easy one, as the champions led by slim 6-4, 8-5 and 10-8 margin at the first, second and third quarter breaks respectively. They came on to outscore St. Augustine 'B' 6-2 in the final period to pull away.

Leading the winners were Dave Vivian and Greg Brown with 6 points each, while Bob Scribner and Kent Hedrick tallied 2 points each. Mark "Will" Conlon and Darel Myers also played well for West Parish. Coach of the champions is Rick Harrison.

For the losers, playing without high-scoring Billy Haskell, the combination of Warren Filz and Steve Royal hit for 5 points each and all of the scoring. Bart Farrell also played a fine game.

Baptist moved into a tie for second place by romping to a lopsided 34-1 victory over winless St. Roberts. Ricky Cherry of Baptist regained the scoring leadership by pumping in 16 points. R. Whitton also played an excellent game with 12 points and S. Evans hooped 6 points. R. Stedman, Peter Blake and D. Dix also turned in fine performances for Baptist.

The St. Roberts point was notched by Orbit, with fine play from James, John and Larry Weitz.

West Parish 'B' squeaked out a tough 8-7 win over hard-luck Free Church as Barry Bronson scored 5 points and Dave Barr added 3 to pace the winners. Bob MacMackin and Mark Hewett also played well. For Free, losing its fourth game by fewer than three points, Dave Coulthard had 5 points, including 3-for-3 from the foul line, and Steve James added 2 points. Dave Barr had the winning basket.

Keith Verrette flipped in 8 points to pace St. Augustine 'D' to an 18-1 rout of St. Augustine 'C'. Tom LaPointe and D. Walker added 4 points apiece for the winners and Glen "Cous" Verrette had 2 points. Joe McAndrew scored the lone point for the losers.

In the final Junior tilt, Christ topped St. Augustine 'A', 17-9. Alan Robinson and Dave Lockwood scored 6 points each, D. Leonard and W. Cunliffe added 2 points and S. Dawe 1 for Christ. Bob Driscoll scored 5 points and P. Market 4 for St. Augustine 'A'.

The schedule round-robin games among the top four Intermediate teams were canceled because of water damage in the gym.

In a special game played between West Parish 'A' Juniors and the Pee Wee All-Stars of the Youth Center, West Parish won by a 54-32 score. Greg Brown had 22 points, Bob Scribner 10, Dave Vivian 8, Barry Bronson and Wayne Couture 6 each and Mark Conlon 2 for West. For the Youth Center All-Stars, John Fox hooped 10, Bob Murgia 8, and Tom Luffy and Jim Mower 6 apiece.

Films For Mothers Shown At Library

Story Tellers

Surprise guest story tellers will be the feature at 3:30 today when the winners of the Girl Scout Troop 235 story telling contest take over for the afternoon. The girls have been working on their storytelling badges this spring, and will narrate tales of their own selection.

Next week, the school-age will be treated to a movie program at 3:30 p.m. in the Children's room. "Beaver Dam" and "Town Musicians" will be shown.

Gifts for February

Nine donors gave 15 books to Memorial Hall Library and the Ballardvale branch last month. The Andover Fly Fishers presented a memorial copy of the very complete (and expensive) TREASURY OF ANGLING.

Increased use of the Andover High School annual Andanno has been noted. If you have a copy you would like to donate to the library for any of the following years, the gift would be useful and much appreciated. Copies are needed for the years: 1966, 1965, 1964, 1963. One copy for last year, 1967, is also needed for the Reference Collection.

Littlest Listeners

The story and game program for Littlest Listeners will be ending with the April programs as follows: Chipmunks on April 2; Squirrels, April 9. At Ballardvale final parties will be held for the Lions on April 4 and for the Elephants on April 11. Mrs. MacCausland will take enrollments for the series starting next fall. Any boy or girl who is at least four years old and pre-school is eligible.

Discussion of Genesis

The Fifth year Great Books group will consider the BOOK OF GENESIS at their next meeting at Memorial Hall Library on April 9 at 7:30 p.m. Does knowing good and evil make Adam mortal? If it had not been for Adam's sin, would man be immortal? According to Genesis, can one know good without also knowing evil? These and other questions are sure to come up at the discussion as members share reactions to the reading topic. If you would like to join in, why not read Genesis and then come to the library? The public is welcome.

New Spring Books

The new look in spring reading comes from the variety of new novels. May we suggest?

Blechnan - MAYEE (A fading Park Avenue widow in some zany situations)

Asimov - ASIMOV'S MYSTERIES (Short stories of galactic empires, social extrapolation all sprinkled with puns)

Carter - SUPERB (What happens to the world's first absolutely perfect mammal? Love happens)

Caspari - THE ROSECREST CELL (Private and public lives in a small New England town, pre-World War II. The cell of the title is communist)

Lowry - UNDER THE VOLCANO (A rich variety of meaning written in virile style)

Luard - THE WARM AND GOLDEN WAR (International intrigue on the Austro-Hungarian border)

Robertson - PARADISE FALLS 2 VOLUMES (A very frank book about a man who is out to beat the world. Exuberant Literary Guild selection)

Roos - WHO SAW MAGGIE BROWN? (A superstar vanishes)

Wymark - AS GOOD AS GOLD (High altitude adventure and suspense)

LOOKING BACKWARD - RECENT NON-FICTION

Platon - CRETE (Magnificent illustrations help understanding of early life at this hub of civilization)

Adair - THE NAVAJO AND PUEBLO SILVERSMITHS (For travelers to the Southwest, for craftsmen and for western buffs)

Ross - UNDERSTANDING EVOLUTION (The continuous chain of events since galaxies were formed - 15 billion years ago, plus or minus)

Taylor - THE MEDIEVAL MIND (Intellectual and emotional history. "Brilliant")

 Great Books discussion, 7:30 p.m.

Special showings of the color movie on The Lively Art of Picture Books are scheduled for the mothers of Littlest Listeners, on April 2 and April 9, according to Miss Elizabeth Russell, Children's Librarian at Memorial Hall Library. The April programs are the final meetings for all Littlest Listeners groups. Mothers can attend the movie while their preschoolers are having their programs of stories.

Showings will be held on the following schedule:

Chipmunk mothers (and others who wish to come) April 2, from 10 to 11 a.m. Meet in the Children's room.

Squirrel mothers (and others who are interested, of course) on April 9 at 10 a.m. Meet in the Children's room.

Ballardvale mothers of Littlest Listeners are cordially invited to either program. The public is welcome and no tickets are needed to attend.

The Lively Art of Picture Books is a beautiful film in color which is narrated by John Langstaff who wrote the famous children's Frog Went A' Courting and other winners of children's book awards. He is a genial host, as well as a concert artist. He was inspired to do this book by his own four children. Frog Went A' Courting combines story, art and music.

Others who appear in the movie include Robert McCloskey, Maurice Sendak and Barbara Cooney. Robert McCloskey is one of the few people to win the Caldecott medal for distinguished children's books twice. His Make Way for Ducklings is beloved by Andover children. It takes place near the Public Gardens in Boston.

Barbara Cooney has a long list of picture books she has illustrated with perfectly delightful pictures. She is the busy mother of four, wife of Dr. Talbot Porter. The Porters live in a rambling early American House in Pepperell where picture books are created in a room that serves as her studio and as the family's library.

Maurice Sendak has done more than 50 books since his first one in 1950. His A Hole Is To Dig; Little Bear; Where The Wild Things Are and The Nutshell Library are all available for young patrons at Memorial Hall Library. Sendak won the 1964 Caldecott medal for his illustrations for Where The Wild Things Are. He is a city man and lives in New York.

The producer of The Lively Art of Picture Books is a prize-winning filmmaker of international reputation. He has used illustrations from 68 outstanding picture books in this movie. If there are some titles children have missed, seeing the film will provide ideas for books to take home that they will surely enjoy. Booklists will also be available without charge.

Episcopal Churches Are Planning Services

The annual Diocesan "Afternoon For Christian Renewal" to be held on Passion Sunday, March 31, in three different locations will have a new look this year. For the first time the Episcopal Churchmen, sole sponsors hitherto, will be joined by the Episcopal Churchwomen as co-sponsors. A committee representing both groups has already met to plan the three area afternoon programs, which, in turn, will be for both men and women. General chairman and coordinator is Lawrence N. Larsen of Winthrop. Serving on the planning committee are workers from each of the host areas: from the North Area Mrs. Ross Whittier of Beverly Farms, George F. Driscoll Sr., of Methuen, Mrs. John B. Guild of Andover and Mrs. Clifton A. Sibley of South Hamilton, who is in charge of publicity; from the Boston Area Raymond W. Jarvis of Roxbury, Mr. Larsen, Mrs. Reginald D. Wells of Weston and Mrs. Bindley A. Wiltshire of Roxbury; and from the South Area Mrs. Motley Sawyer of Marion, Mrs.

Robert E. Ryan of Fall River and Ralph L. Keyes also of Fall River. The other new dimension is in the field of ecumenism. Not only are all Episcopal Churchmen and Churchwomen invited, but they are urged to bring friends of other religious denominations and faiths. The "Afternoon For Christian Renewal", a time apart, provides the time and opportunity to listen and hear God's word at simultaneous Diocesan District gatherings. In the North Area, St. Augustine's Church, 297 South Union St., South Lawrence, will offer its facilities with the Rev. Franklin E. Vilas Jr., Rector of St. John's Church, Beverly Farms, as leader. To the Boston Area the Church of St. Matthew and the Redeemer, 825 East 4th St., South Boston will be available under the leadership of the Rev. Herbert S. Stevens, Canon to the Ordinary in charge of Program of the Diocese. For the South Area the Church of the Ascension, 160 Rock Street, Fall River, will be open with its rector, the Rev. Gerald M. Laudable Trend

There appears to be a healthy trend in Andover at the present time toward taking a closer look at the cost of construction of new public buildings.

At town meeting, the voters refused to appropriate additional funds for the Public Safety and Town Hall projects. As the result, a committee is now at work on Selectman Sidney P. White's prediction that the new police and fire station project can be provided with the funds originally appropriated.

Approval of the committee was given by the selectmen at Monday night's session. The names were supplied by Selectman White and won quick approval both from the town manager and the other selectmen. It is noteworthy that the committee is made up of men skilled in engineering and construction, qualifications which will be most valuable to them in planning the new public safety center.

Even before the committee came into being officially, the members held an informal meeting during which Selectman White promised that he would not interfere with their work but would be available for consultation. He explained that he had visited a number of communities where combined facilities for the police and fire departments have been established and suggested that the committee members visit these and other locations during their deliberations.

Members of the new committee have accepted their task with commendable enthusiasm.

Considering that this all came about through the voters' decision to "make do with what you have," there seems to be a great deal of progress made already toward the realization of a new public safety center.

In another quarter, the West School Addition building committee is making every effort to cut down costs while at the same time providing a quality building.

The committee spent considerable time at their last meeting going over the plans and seeking areas in which square footage could be lessened at a saving to the taxpayers.

The basic concept of the architect for the building is not being changed, but there will be alterations made in plans which he has promised to bring in at a later date.

School building committees must work with an eye to the educational specifications and requirements of the State Building Assistance Commission which must approve the plans. This limits their field of operations.

At any rate, the trend toward economy in new buildings in Andover is encouraging. It is also in keeping with the warning of the Finance Committee in their annual report earlier this month that "public building construction has become excessive in view of experiences with the new high school, the Bancroft School and the indicated cost of the new public safety facility."

The planners seem to be doing their homework well in anticipation of a coming special town meeting at which appropriations will be voted by the taxpayers.

Law Enforcement

Talk of the new dog leash law not being enforceable in Andover is not resting well with town officials.

It is true that enforcement was spoken of at town meeting after the finance committee had turned down an article in the special warrant which would have provided $10,000 for enforcement of the by-law.

Town Manager Bowen said that we "won't be able to enforce the by-law properly" as the debate was in progress. Selectman Roger Collins said that he wished the FinCom had left the special meeting article to come before the meeting for a vote.

Monday night the selectmen made reference to criticism expressed by a Lowell Street resident who pointed out that town officials are responsible for the enforcement of ALL by-laws and not any selected ones.

The selectmen stressed that the leash law will be enforced to the greatest degree possible as soon as it is approved by the attorney-general. They also said that a special town meeting is coming up in June and at that time an appropriation for enforcement will probably be sought.

Meanwhile, many dog owners appear to be training their pets in advance of the effective date of the law to stay at home. Observers agree that there have been many less dogs around the streets since the town meeting vote was taken.

Nature's Ways

Whirligigs Active Early

Whirligig beetles launch their boaty little carcasses so early in the spring that Thoreau was convinced that they were afloat on ponds all winter.

Although most students of insects allow the whirligig beetle a brief winter respite in New England, Thoreau was not too far wrong. Groups of whirligigs, whirling and skittering on the water surface like so many tiny dodgem cars in an amusement park, can be seen on ponds or quiet streams as soon as open water develops.

The whirligigs remind one of small June bugs. They belong to a group of true beetles that have taken to the water rather than land. In their long association with the water surface, whirligigs have improved upon more normal beetle structure by evolving two pairs of eyes. A set of eyes high on the head adjust for viewing objects in the air. Another set low on the head remain below the surface when the beetle is afloat and view objects in the water.

In a sense, whirligig beetles can take advantage of three worlds. Like most other beetles, they are capable of flying. They also can trap an air bubble beneath their hard-shell wings and dive to the pond bottom, carrying their own air supply with them.

Whirligigs, however, are most at home when half in the water and half in the air. Unlike many surface insects that walk on the surface, whirligig beetles float upon the surface with the lower half of the body submerged.

Whirligig beetles begin life as an egg fastened to a submerged plant. In about three weeks, the beetle larva hatches. As do so many insect larvae that live in water, the beetle larva looks roughly like a small shrimp.

While in the larva stage, the beetle spends a few weeks as a rather ferocious predator, feeding upon small zooplankton and even upon blood worms, other insect larvae and small fish as large as it is. It then makes itself a mud cell, usually attached to an aquatic plant near the water's edge. In a month, the resident of the cell, known as a pupa, emerges as an adult beetle.

Most of the flights by the whirligig beetle apparently occur in its early days as an adult. Probably flight serves largely in distributing the beetles to all possible habitats.

Whirligig beetles retire to the muddy pond or stream bottom at night. The habit caused Thoreau to remark:

"What a funny way they have of going to bed! They do not take a light upstairs; they go below. Suddenly it is heels up and heads down, and they go to their muddy bed, and let the unrelenting stream flow over them in their dreams."

termed inadequate for the needs, and they also asked for improved access to the cafeteria, probably by switching the position of cafeteria and kitchen, and for preservation of the stage of the auditorium of the present structure, since this will be used for a primary auditorium as well as for physical education.

A net of about 10,000 sq. ft. has been cut from the architect's original drawings for the addition. Much of this has been saved by a reshuffling, and a reduction in total square footage, of the new classroom clusters, which meets with approval of the School Committee. Plans call for clusters of 800 sq. ft. classroom around a larger group areas.

The plans for a swimming pool will be included in the plans submitted to the School Building Assistance Program. Although the Building Committee discarded the idea of building the pool now, inclusion of the pool plan in the drawings is necessary to insure that if the pool is added at a later date, some of the cost will be reimbursable by the state.

Bill Clift Wins Letter

Amherst College sophomore William B. Clift III of Andover has recently been awarded his first varsity letter in hockey. Coach McCabe lauded Clift as being the "most promising sophomore on the club." A versatile skater in the second line, Clift was alternated freely from center to wing as needed.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Clift Jr., of Fuess House, Chapel Ave., Clift is a graduate of Phillips Academy. At Andover he was a member of the Phillips Society, lettered in hockey, and captained both the football and lacrosse teams. At Amherst, Clift won his freshman numerals in football and captained both the freshman hockey and lacrosse teams. He is a member of Chi Psi fraternity.

What Our Readers Say-

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN:

In your March 21 issue, you published Mr. Stillman's letter which he ended with the conclusion that "a policy of actively soliciting industry will result in a consistent increase in the tax rate. Should not the Selectmen review their policy?"

I fail to see how Mr. Stillman can draw this conclusion from the careful calculations which he developed in the earlier part of his letter.

A 20-year sewer bond issue of $1,500,000 at 4.2% interest (using Mr. Stillman's figures) will cost $138,000 the first year in amortization and interest; this annual payment will decrease by $3,150 each year, until it comes down to $78,150 in the twentieth year by which time the debt has been paid off at a total cost of $2,161,500.

A $5,000,000 plant, at a constant tax rate of $30 (again using Mr. Stillman's figures) will return $150,000 in taxes each year, i. e., $12,000 more than the highest annual debt payment. And can we really hope for a constant tax rate?

If Mr. Stillman's assumption that we begin paying for bonds in 1968 but do not receive taxes until 1970 were correct we would indeed not reach the cumulative break-even point 'til 1978: cumulative debt payments by 1978 would be $1,344,750 and cumulative tax receipts $1,350,000. But even with this assumption, the Town will have received $2,700,000 in taxes by 1987 when the debt is paid off, leaving a net gain of $538,500 over the $2,161,500 quoted above. And taxes will keep on coming thereafter.

Camp Fire Girls Have Observance

The Camp Fire Girls were 58 years young last week. As part of the observance of the event, a group of 80 local girls attended Sunday Mass at St. Augustine's Church on March 17. Andover is now part of Greater Boston District I which also includes Chelmsford, Tewksbury, North Andover and Billerica. The Camp Fire movement was established in 1910 by Dr. and Mrs. Luther Halsey Gulick.

Camp Fire has always been an organization for girls. It emphasizes the contributions that both men and women make in the world. Indian lore and symbols are an integral part of Camp Fire ceremonies.

The Camp Fire Girls program covers four age levels: Blue Birds 7-8 yrs.; Camp Fire 9-11 yrs.; Junior Hi Camp Fire 12-13 yrs.; and Horizon Club 14-17 yrs. Each age group is organized to interest and teach the girls in ways suited to their normal activities.

Outdoor life is an important phase of all Camp Fire Groups and there are excellent camping programs available.

The Jr-Hi Camp Fire Girls of Andover early this month elected officers for the remainder of the school year. Elected were: Karen Strobel, president; Kathy Bubar, vice president in charge of publicity; Nancy Carter, secretary; Betsy Young, treasurer; and Nancy Reid, refreshment chairman. AHS Students Rehearsing For Musical "Oklahoma!"

Over 200 students at Andover High are rehearsing and preparing for their presentation of Rodgers and Hammerstein's hit musical "Oklahoma!" on May 3 and 4 in the auditorium of the former high school on Shawsheen Rd. "Oklahoma" was first performed on Broadway on March 31, 1943, and had an extremely long run. Even before it had been turned into a motion picture, "Oklahoma!" had been seen and heard by more people than any other musical in theatrical history - its audiences exceeded 10 million.

"Oklahoma" contains such hit tunes as "Oh, What a Beautiful Morning!" "Surrey With the Fringe on the Top!" "People Will Say We're in Love!" and the ever-famous "Oklahoma!"

Nancy Mooney and Steven Gesing play the lead parts of Laurey and Curley; Nancy Haggerty, Aunt Eller; Linda Hughes, Annie; and Theodore Haykal as Will Parker.

In previous years, Andover High has presented "Carousel", "Kiss Me Kate", and "Show Boat". The musical this year, once again, is under the direction of John Boyle of the high school English Department. Edward Grigoli, head of the Andover Music Department, is in charge of the orchestration. Miss Marilyn Haykal will be the pianist and Miss Ruth Ann Stevens is in charge of dancing. Tickets will go on sale about April 1 and will be available from all Seniors and at the door.

After being grown in a laboratory, the root system of a vigorous grass, winter rye, was found to have 14 billion hairs with an end to end length of 6,000 miles all crammed into one cubic inch of soil, the Massachusetts Audubon Society tells us.

Louis Victor Dufresne Jr., 25 McKenney Ave., who will graduate in June from Andover High School has been accepted at Northeast Institute of Industrial Technology in Boston. He will study air conditioning and refrigeration.

For example, 30 yards away is indicated by a simple circle traversed several times in 15 seconds, and an intricate figure in slow motion means five miles off.

letter. The School Committee has also written to the MSSPA calling the ruling and interpretation "unduly restrictive." The Committee supported the three-season status of gymnastics and voted a letter of thanks to Mrs. Seikunas.

As to Coach Dorsey, Mrs. Seikunas stated in her report on the matter to the School Committee, "I feel this man's record, both from the aspect of ability to develop a good gymnastics team hear after year and the extremely good influence he exerts on the boys with whom he works, merits this consideration. I do not believe this resignation should be 'regretfully accepted' without a real effort being made to resolve the pro-

Athletic Director Donald Dunn, who has stated that the MSSPA ruling is a handicap to development of a good gymnastics team, was also questioned on Dorsey's attempted resignation. Dunn pointed out that he had recommended salary increases for the position, but that the Unit A (teachers') bargaining team had not included such a salary increase recommendation in their proposals. "What I would like to see," said Dunn, "is for Joe to remain as coach and be granted a stipend for meritorious service."

Voters May Shift Party

Andover voters who may wish to change party designations before the primary election may do so until 3:30 p.m. Saturday at the town clerk's office in the town hall.

Voters who are now designated either Republican or Democrat may have the designations removed and become independent voters so that they can take either party's ballot at the primary. When the primary is over, they can have their original party designation reinstated if they wish.

MBTA Train Bill Comes To $704.69

A bill for $704.69 for the period July 1 to Dec. 31 was received by the selectmen Monday from the MBTA for the furnishing of one-a-day train service from Andover to Boston. This figure represents ten percent of the cost, the other 90 percent being contributed by the Commonwealth.

The actual cost of the service is proving to be lower than anticipated since the town appropriated $1,500 at the annual town meeting for the year. This would exceed the year's cost as projected by the figure for the last six months of last year.

Hurrell Seeks Two Swim Pools

Rep. James P. Hurrell, (D-North Andover) has petitioned the Joint Rules Committee to consider two late-filed petitions. The bills are "An act authorizing and directing the Department of Natural Resources to construct a swimming pool in the towns of Andover and North Andover."

Hurrell pointed out that after talking with town officials in the town of North Andover, that a possible location for the pool would be in the vicinity of the recreational facilities on Dale St.

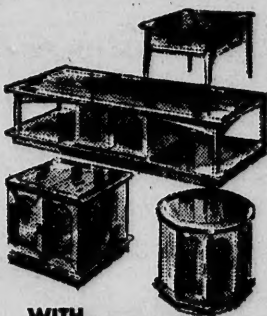

Hurrell also felt that a good location for the town of Andover would be in the vicinity of Poms Pond.

For the first time, elections at Andover East Junior High followed the pattern of regular town elections. Students, instead of voting all together in home rooms, went to the polls voluntarily during the noon hour and after school. They used the check-in tables known to all adult Andover voters and deposited their choices in the ballot box on their way out of the foyer where the voting took place.

When the votes were counted and the results announced over the Intercom, East Junior High School cheered for their new officers, as follows: president, Steven Lanier; vice president, Philip Dawicki; secretary, Patricia Morin and treasurer, Mary Lou Caffrey.

U. S. Highway 40 crosses the 40th parallel four times on its 3,000 mile stretch from Atlantic to Pacific.

Speed limits for Andover Street have been established by the board of selectmen. The speeds will vary from 20 to 30 miles an hour depending upon the location. The signs indicating the speed limits are in the process of being posted.

Taxi Permits $1

A $1-per-car charge for taxi permits was established Monday night by the selectmen. The board also voted to have the cab firms file a schedule of charges with the town manager and also post them in their offices and in the cabs. The issue has been hanging fire for some weeks since a complaint was made by a resident about an overcharge.
